

548 Dorrroughby Road Dorrroughby NSW

Situated in a wonderful and peaceful location providing an exciting opportunity to build your dream home and farm lifestyle on a near level yet elevated rural block with expansive northerly views to the Whian Whian State Conservation area. This blank canvas offers someone with the foresight to build an oasis within total privacy on rich volcanic soil with organic matter being constantly applied over the last 25 years. Almost an island block with 3 street frontages allowing for easy building access and future access points where desired (STCA). Rarely available in the hinterland is such a usable larger acreage property situated one of the highest locations in Dorrroughby with a building entitlement. Power is also available on the length of the western boundary.

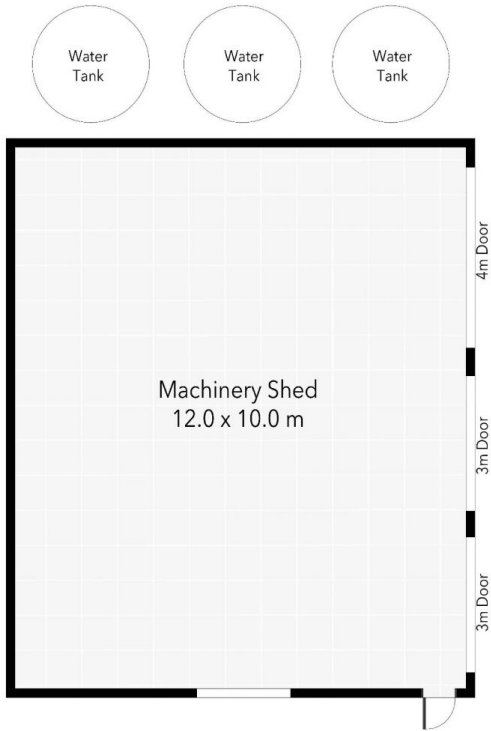

Currently a working macadamia farm with approximately 3,750 mature trees and near new 120 sqm three bay, high
